*Tony Melendez is a Nicaraguan American guitar player, composer, singer, and songwriter who was born without arms. In September 1987 he performed a humble song for Pope John Paul II during his visit to the United States. We are honored to host him here at St. Paul Parish for a performance on Sunday night, 7:00pm in the cafetorium. Please invite family and friends for what will truly be a blessed experience.

To enjoy his performance for the Holy Father, please visit the address below.
